Individual Current Account

There are no minimum balance requirements to operate your account. However, if the total monthly balance of all your accounts with us, such as Current Account, Savings Account and Fixed Deposit Account falls below 250 currency units, administration charges may apply. Monthly Average Balance calculation is done on the Customer ID level. The administration charge is calculated by adding the daily closing balance of all your accounts with us for the month and dividing it by the total number of days for that month. The following administration charges are applied to your account on the basis of your Monthly Average Balance:

Total Monthly Average Balance (Currency Units)	Administrative charge for the respective month (Currency Units)
▶ 250 and above	▶ 0
▶ 250 -0	▶ 3

These charges will be levied on the Current Account in the respective currency.

General Account Charges

The following charges are applicable to both Current and Savings Accounts for individuals:

Item	Applicable charges in the currency of the account
▶ Early Account Closure (Within 6 months of Account Opening)	▶ 20
▶ Issue of Duplicate Account Statement from branch	▶ 10 per copy for the current calendar year ▶ 50 per copy beyond the current calendar year.
▶ Letter of Reference/ Attestation of statement	▶ 20
▶ Certificate of Balance/ Certificate on Account	▶ 20

▶ Cancellation/ Stop Payment	▶ 10 currency units
▶ Amendment/ Reissuance	▶ 15 currency units

Fixed Deposits

With the Premature Withdrawal option:

In case a Fixed Deposit is withdrawn prematurely, note that the Bank may not pay all the interest accrued from the time of opening the Fixed Deposit up to the time of its premature withdrawal. Additionally, there is also a premature withdrawal fee of 1% flat, payable on the principal amount and interest (on the amount considered by the Bank to be payable as interest), subject to protection of only the principal amount and not the interest accrued.

If the deposit sought to be withdrawn is held for a period for which deposits are offered by the Singapore Branch (3, 6, 12, 18, 24 months and so on)

Interest calculated at the rate applicable for deposits of such tenure (as existing at the time of opening of the deposit sought to be withdrawn), less the premature withdrawal fee of 1% flat on the principal and on the interest, subject to protection of only the principal.

So in this example, if he is closing prematurely in exactly one year, since the Singapore branch offers one year deposits, the customer will get the rate which a one year deposit offers (when he had opened his two year deposit), less 1% withdrawal fee on the principal and interest.

If the deposit sought to be withdrawn is held for a period that falls between two tenures for which deposits are offered by the Singapore Branch

Interest calculated at the rate applicable for deposits of the shorter of the two tenures (as existing at the time of opening of the deposit sought to be withdrawn), less the premature withdrawal fee of 1% flat on the principal and on the interest, subject to protection of only the principal.

So in this example, if he would break the deposit in 15 months, the customer would still get the rate which a one year deposit offers (when he had opened his two year deposit), less 1% withdrawal fee on the principal and interest.

If the interest has been paid out

The premium is adjusted against any payment due to the customer. This would mean that even in cases where the principal is protected, the amount returned could be less than the principal to the extent of the interest already paid out to the customer.

Without the Premature Withdrawal option:

The Fixed Deposit cannot be closed by the depositor before expiry of the term of such deposit. However, the Bank may allow premature withdrawal of these deposits in the following exceptional circumstances: In the event of any direction from any statutory and/or regulatory authority or deceased claim settlement cases. In the event of premature withdrawal of these deposits under the above-mentioned exceptional circumstances, the Bank will not pay any interest on the principal amount of the deposit. Any interest credited or paid up to the date of such premature closure will be recovered from the deposit amount.
